

Wildlife Film Festival Rotterdam Regulations and Submission Form 2016

General

Wildlife Film Festival Rotterdam (WFFR), which will take place from October 27th to October 30th 2016, is now open for entries! WFFR screens movies with a central focus on the natural world, but also critical and informative offerings on the environment and sustainability. We would like to invite both professional (established broadcasters, film or television production companies/distributors and independent filmmakers) and non-professional filmmakers from anywhere in the world to participate in the festival. Registration for the Wildlife Film Festival Rotterdam is completely free. The festival and judging will take place in Rotterdam.

A selection committee will select submitted films for screening. A festival jury will decide which films will be awarded.

Filmmakers can compete in the following categories:

- Professional films category (jury award and audience award);
- Non professional films category (jury award and audience award);
- WFFR Awareness category (jury award).

Eligibility and submission process

To participate in the festival, the entries must meet the following criteria:

1. The films must have an aspect of the natural world as the central focus or critical and informative offerings on the environment and sustainability and be completed on or after January 1st, 2012.
2. Films sent in for the category non-professional may not exceed 30 minutes.
3. Films in languages other than English or Dutch are welcome but must be subtitled or dubbed into English.
4. For the selection process preferably two DVD copies or USB key of the film should be received via post before May 1st, 2016. Please mark your copies clearly with the film title and send your copies to:

Wildlife Film Festival Rotterdam
Brandingdijk 112
3059 RB Rotterdam
The Netherlands

None of the submissions will be returned and the costs for sending are paid by the entrant. Entrants are responsible for insurance and WFFR does not accept any responsibility for non-receipt, damage or loss. You can also send in your film as a digital video file for the selection process to competition@wffr.nl via WeTransfer or Vimeo.

Acceptable file formats are: .avi, .mov, .mpeg4

5. Each film should be sent to WFFR along with:
 - a completed submission form (see below) in English;
 - a short summary of the film in English;
 - a brief biography and filmography of the director(s) in English;
 - 2 or more good stills/photos from the production;
 - if available, a trailer of the film.

Please send this to: competition@wffr.nl before May 1st 2016.

WFFR reserves the right to edit the information for publication and promotional materials.

6. The production must be submitted to WFFR by the producer or distributor of the film or their authorised representative. It will be presumed that all production partners have agreed to the submission.
7. Please note that while sponsorship in the films can be acknowledged, advertising is not permitted.
8. By submitting the film, entrants grant consent to screen the film by WFFR during the festival without any right to royalties.
9. WFFR is allowed to use the film, the stills, the trailer and the information provided for promotional activities.
10. No film may be withdrawn from the festival programme after it has been selected for screening.

For more information about the submission process please visit our website or contact Ruta via competition@wffr.nl.

Selection and award process

All submissions received by the entry deadline will be reviewed by a selection committee. The selection committee will decide which movies will be selected for screening and nominated for an award. A jury will decide which films will be awarded in 3 categories.

Both the selection committee and the jury will comprise of industry practitioners from a range of disciplines. Decisions by the selection committee and the jury do not have to be motivated.

In addition to the awards attributed by the jury, an audience award will also be awarded to the most popular film chosen by the general public in the professional and the non-professional category.

Around Aug 1st, 2016 the selected finalists will be informed if their film has been selected to be screened at the festival and will be asked to provide a high quality screening copy of the film for screening during the festival, preferably DCP. The festival can support a variety of screening formats, including Non-DCP.

Each award winning film will receive their prize and a special mention by the festival organisation during the closing ceremony on Sunday 30th of October 2016.
